Fall 2018

September 6th – December 13th

Who is God? Why does it matter?

Leader: Jan and Bruce Chester - chester2jb@gmail.com

Day and Time: Thursday mornings 9:30-11:30 (Fall and Spring)

Description: How do we really connect with God personally, intimately, and experientially? Wise counsel from the past has said, "We become what we worship". Through the format of teaching and discussing, this class will provide answers to questions about God that will expand your knowledge of Him and propel your own soul deeper into the realm of where He lives.

Materials: "The Knowledge of the Holy", by A.W. Tozer, and the Bible

None Like Him by Jen Wilkin

Leader: Jennifer French - french.jemp@gmail.com

Day and Time: Thursday Mornings 9:30-11:30AM

Description: Join me as we study ten of the attributes of God ... "Ten ways God is different from us, and why that's a good thing." This study will need 1-2 hours of prep each week. This will not be a boring, academic study- here's why we should study the attributes of God: "Our limitations are by design. We were never meant to be God. But at the root of every sin is our rebellious desire to possess attributes that belong to God alone. Calling us to embrace our limits as a means of glorifying God's limitless power, Jen Wilkin invites us to celebrate the freedom that comes when we rest in letting God be God."

God of Creation by Jen Wilkin

Leader: Sandy Howard - srshoward@fuse.net

Day and Time: Thursday Mornings 9:30-11:30AM

Description: The opening lines and chapters of Genesis teach us fundamental truths about God. We watch Him bring light after darkness, order after chaos, and rest after toil—all through the power of His Word. Over 10 sessions of verse-by-verse study, dive into the first 11 chapters of Genesis by following three critical stages of understanding: comprehension, interpretation, and application. Teaching videos are key to the understanding of this study. Revisit familiar stories and historical figures, challenge your basic knowledge, and discover deeper meanings in the text. As God reveals Himself through Scripture, we can only begin to understand ourselves when we first glimpse the character, attributes, and promises of our Creator.

Poised to Hear and Obey

Leader: Patty Hunt - hunt.pattyw@gmail.com

Day and Time: Thursday Mornings 9:30-11:30AM

Description: Do you yearn for deep spiritual transformation? This year-long study will focus on practicing the spiritual disciplines that position us to hear and obey God thus becoming like Him and living life His way. Using a 3-book series by James Bryan Smith, we will focus on our intimacy with God, our inward character and living out Jesus' kingdom vision. Weekly reading assignments, practicing the disciplines taught and a commitment to the group are required. After doing this series last year with a wide variety of ages and spiritual maturity, this class is for anyone who wants to be challenged to live out the kingdom of God, but it will take a commitment to prepare, practice and participate. Class size is limited so please contact Patty with any questions.

Materials: The Good and Beautiful God, The Good and Beautiful Life, The Good and Beautiful Community by James Bryan Smith before the first class. Each are available used and new on Amazon. Hard copy preferred for underlying.

When Life is Hard by James MacDonald

Leader: Angie Kress - angiekress@fuse.net

Day and Time: Thursday Mornings 9:30-11:30AM

Description: How do we make sense of Trials and Suffering? Why do we have them? What do we do with them? God has a lot to say in His Word to answer those questions and encourage us as we walk through the Hard Times in this Life together!

Materials: When life is Hard by James MacDonald Workbook (you will need this)

1 Peter by Jen Wilkin

Leader: Mary Norton - marynorton428@gmail.com

Day and Time: Thursday Mornings 9:30-11:30AM

Description: Do you want to learn how to study God's Word? Jen Wilkins' book on First Peter is an excellent resource for learning a process for Bible study. Each week we'll read through 1 Peter then focus on a few verses in depth. Along the way, we'll cover the difficult topics of suffering and submission and what it means to experience the Living Hope we have in Christ.

Women of the Word

Leader: Marie Gore - goremarie@aol.com

Day and Time: Monday Evenings 7:00-9:00PM (Begins September 17)

Description: We have fun, fellowship and sometimes food as we apply Romans 15:4,

“For whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through perseverance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.”

We will explore the history of the Jewish nation, the character of God, the messianic prophecies and much more as we proceed through the Old Testament book by book. No required homework.

Materials: Bible and Notebook

James: Faith/Works by Matt Chandler

Leader: Sandy Deel - sandydeel@fuse.net

Day and Time: Thursday Evenings 7:00-9:00PM

Description: How do we really connect with God personally, intimately, and experientially? Wise counsel from the past has said, “We become what we worship”. Through the format of teaching and discussing, this class will provide answers to questions about God that will expand your knowledge of Him and propel your own soul deeper into the realm of where He lives. James had a unique earthly relationship with Jesus, but his letter clarifies what the Christian life should look like for us all. The Book of James is filled with practical wisdom for Christians, calling us to live out genuine faith through good works, but it is also rooted in rich theology. Perhaps more than any other book in the New Testament, James emphasizes the application of Christian belief. This 13-session study examines the core message of James: the relationship between faith and works. In our own ability, we cannot stand in the face of adversity. Without faith we could never find the strength to trust God. We would never be able to see above the trials we meet and to keep our eyes focused on the King while counting our trials as joy. This is the essence of James. We don't work to be saved; we work because we are saved. Faith apart from works can never be sustained.
