Jude: Contending for the Faith in Today's Culture

by Jackie Hill Perry

Thursday Morning, 9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

July 9th - August 20th

No Childcare Provided

While often overlooked, the Book of Jude remains as relevant today as the time it was written. God has commanded His beloved church to do the necessary work of contending for the faith in a world of unbelief, and as we do, He will keep us from falling into the same deception. In this 7-session study from Jackie Hill Perry, dive into themes of being called, loved, and kept, and learn how to point others to Jesus in grace and truth. We serve others well when we share the whole gospel with them, not just the parts deemed attractive by our culture.

Benefits:

- Recognize God's Word as an anchor in the ever-shifting cultural climate.
- Discover your God-given identity in a world of deception.
- See how this small, obscure book in Scripture still speaks to the church today.

First Principles (Women)

by The Charles Simeon Trust

Thursday Evening, 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

July 9th - August 20th

No Childcare Provided

This eight week course from The Charles Simeon Trust focuses on the most fundamental principles for studying and teaching the Bible. Each lesson will begin with a lecture from an engaging and experienced teacher such as Kristie Anyabwile, Abi Byrd, Nancy Guthrie, Susan Jahns, Colleen McFadden and Kathleen Nielsen. Then we will practice the skills and principles together so we can learn how to more appropriately apply God's Word to the lives of God's people today.

The course would be great for someone looking to grow in their individual study, teaching a Sunday School class or group Bible study, or in a one-to-one discipleship relationship. To access course materials, participants will need to also sign-up on the Simeon Trust web site. Mark group leader as "Kim Jorden." Course syllabus can be viewed online. Handouts will be provided for each session.
